

shade me

jennifer brown

Nikki Kill has synesthesia. Her senses overlap leaving her to see words, letters, and emotions in color.

When she gets a call one night about an unidentified girl who was attacked and in the hospital. She finds out that her number was the only number in the girl's phone.

Nikki identifies the girl as Peyton Hollis. Peyton was a popular girl with a famous father, but Nikki had never interacted with her.

Nikki makes it her mission to find out what happened to Peyton and how she's connected.

Solving this mystery could kill her, but knowing that won't keep her from seeing the colors leading her to the answers she is searching for.

Jennifer Brown

shade me

jennifer brown

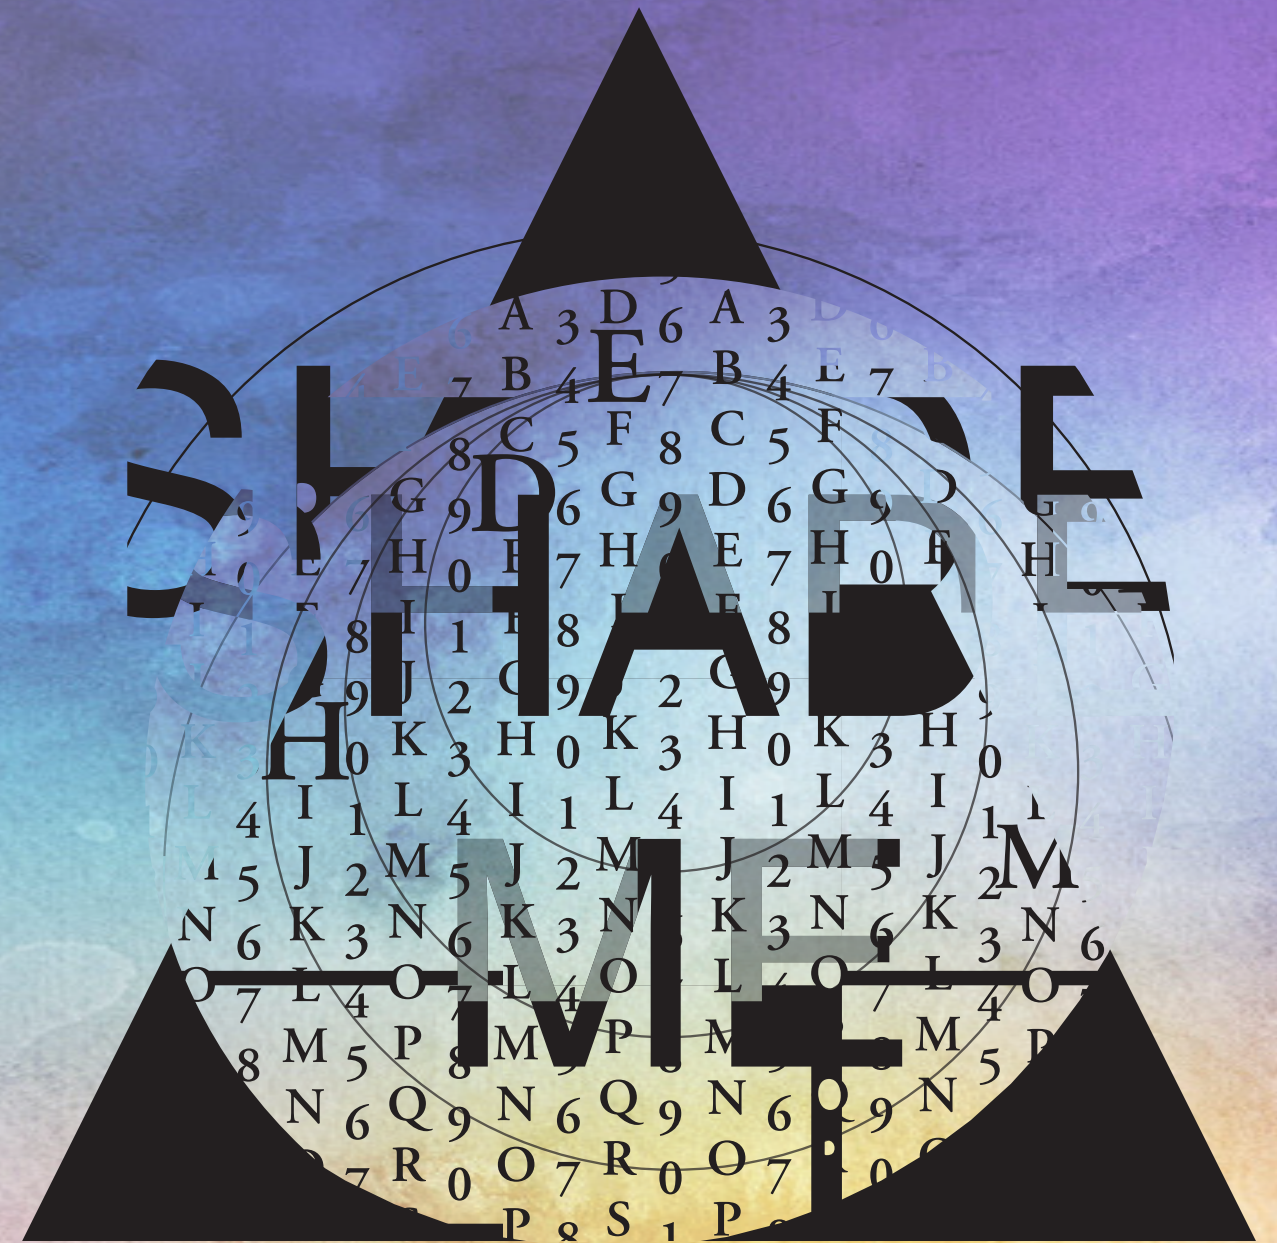

Nikki Kill has synesthesia. Her senses overlap leaving her to see words, letters, and emotions in color.

When she gets a call one night about an unidentified girl who was attacked and in the hospital. She finds out that her number was the only number in the girl's phone.

Nikki identifies the girl as Peyton Hollis. Peyton was a popular girl with a famous father, but Nikki had never interacted with her.

Nikki makes it her mission to find out what happened to Peyton and how she's connected.

Solving this mystery could kill her, but knowing that won't keep her from seeing the colors leading her to the answers she is searching for.

Jennifer Brown